Foreword

Whatever spirit a school is recognized by reveals the vital character of that group.

The theme of TOGETHERNESS was not chosen lightly or impulsively but after careful observation. Together the Crest staff launched Operation Exploration, thus getting a glimpse into every area of school life.

Everywhere and in everything—in the offices of the administration and at the meetings of the faculty, in the team teaching of the instructors and in the projects of the various classes, on the athletic field and in the victory cheers of the Pep Club, in the social life of the students and at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass—there is a spirit of togetherness. Hand in hand, Brother, Sister, lay teacher, boy, and girl pray, work and play together.

Friendships that may dim with the years, but never die, are formed. Borrowing, lending, quarreling, amending are recollections that will bring smiles and tears as years pass. Students with incompatible ideas and goals stand together in classes and organizations in one great unit—LOYALTY TO BISHOP KELLEY HIGH SCHOOL.

Bishop Kelley High School

Bishop Kelley High School, the only Catholic co-institutional high school in Oklahoma, is staffed by the Sisters of Divine Providence and the Brothers of the Christian Schools. In the foreground, from left to right, are the gymnasium and cafeteria. To the left of the gymnasium is the brothers' residence. Connected to the cafeteria by the breezeways is the core building, which houses the science, homemaking, and business departments. In the background is the Main Building with its boys' and girls' wings, joined by the administration offices and student commons.

"Capture the spirit of Bishop Kelley High School and then reproduce it in your yearbook," advised our Crest advisor. This proved to be an exciting adventure in the realms of administration, curriculum, clubs, sports, and student life. With united efforts, we and the members of the staff tried to reproduce on these pages this vital spirit of togetherness. Jo Ann McFadden and Joan Presley—Co-Editors; Mike Buckendorf—Business Manager.

HIS EXCELLENCY, THE MOST REVEREND VICTOR J. REED
Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa

Catholic Education On the March

Dedicated to the philosophy that only education with religion shapes the ideal citizens of the future, our Bishop authorized the building of Bishop Kelley High School. Priests and people rallied to his appeals in special fund-raising campaigns. They, too, were ready to make sacrifices for the cause of Catholic education.

As students we are very much aware of our indebtedness to His Excellency, Bishop Reed, the priests, and people of Oklahoma and take this opportunity to express our deepest admiration, respect, and appreciation. They have passed on to us their Catholic philosophy. May we be guided by it all our lives and always keep CATHOLIC EDUCATION ON THE MARCH!

Father Bob's life is a very busy one; yet he always has time to listen to any student's problems. Father leaves nothing undone to help a person at any time of the day or night. Additional to the scientific methods of counseling, Father Bob has a special technique, best described as his Christlike way.

Brother I. Alfred

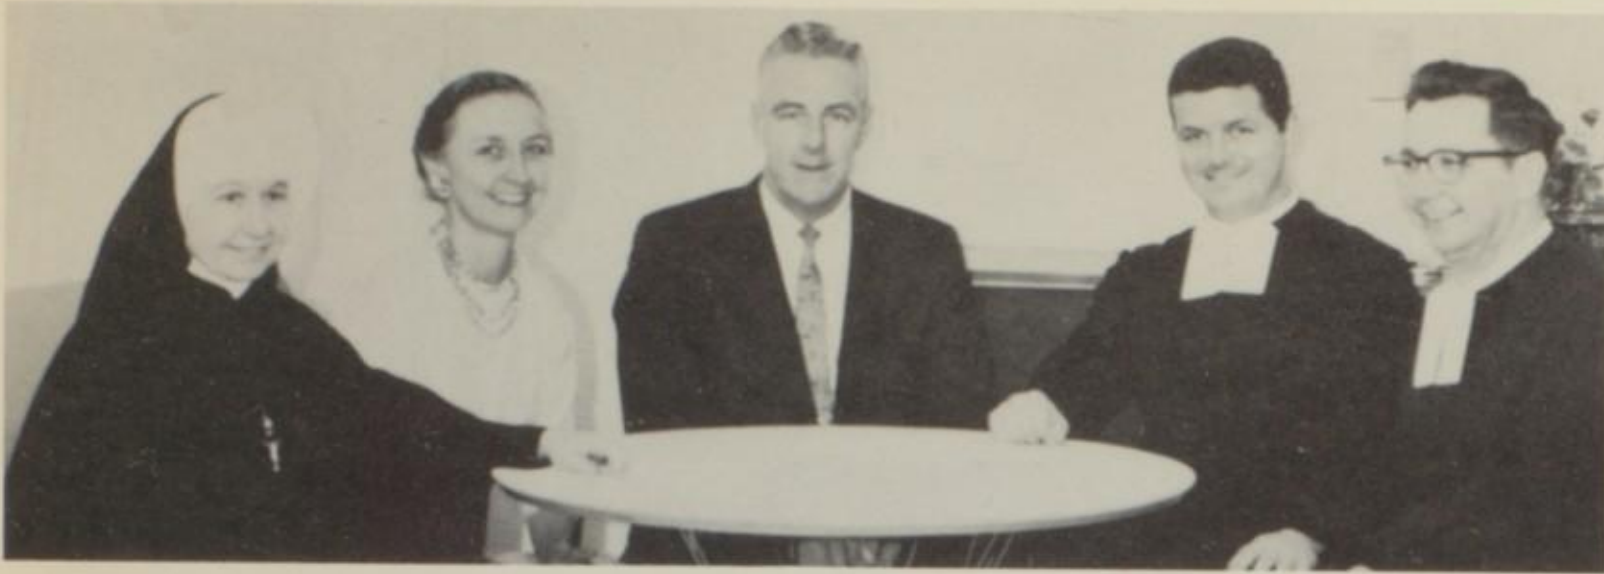

As administrators of a co-institutional high school, Brother Alfred and Sister Angelina Marie are working together to promote that spirit of unity which is so essential in a school such as Bishop Kelley High. Efficiency and thoroughness, the key words to the duties of these two dedicated administrators, have made the school the kind that every student is proud and happy to attend.

SISTER ANGELINA MARIE
Principal of Girls

At the left is pictured the setting of the Bishop Kelley Commencement Exercises. Officiating at the ceremonies is His Excellency, Most Reverend Victor J. Reed, assisted by Brother Alfred and Father Bob Schlitt. Brother Philip is master of ceremonies. Also on the platform are Monsignor William H. Reid and Sister Angelina Marie.

Left to right: Sister Alphonsine, Mrs. J. E. Edwards, Mr. W. C. Leroux, Brother Philip, and Brother William—club presidents and moderators. The two clubs, involving the dads and mothers of Kelley students, bring together teachers and parents for the best interest of their sons and daughters.

Services Geared for Smooth Operation

SISTER EDMUNDA, Girls' Attendance Officer

Here is the hardworking corps that checks attendance, answers anxious parents' distress calls, keeps accounts straight, takes fees, compiles records of tests and grades, and keeps the wheels of administrative detail running smoothly.

They are also the individuals who strike fear in students' hearts with office call slips.

No one underrates the part these people play in the overall scheme of Bishop Kelley High School.

Together We Teach and Learn

The curriculum of Bishop Kelley High School furnishes the key to all doors of opportunity. Classes abound for the mathematician, the historian, the scientist, the artist. The future homemakers, bookkeepers, and secretaries receive excellent training. Journalistic ambitions are fostered by news-writing classes. Poise is acquired through classes in public speaking. A graduate of Bishop Kelley High School can offer no excuses for not being an expert in any future career.

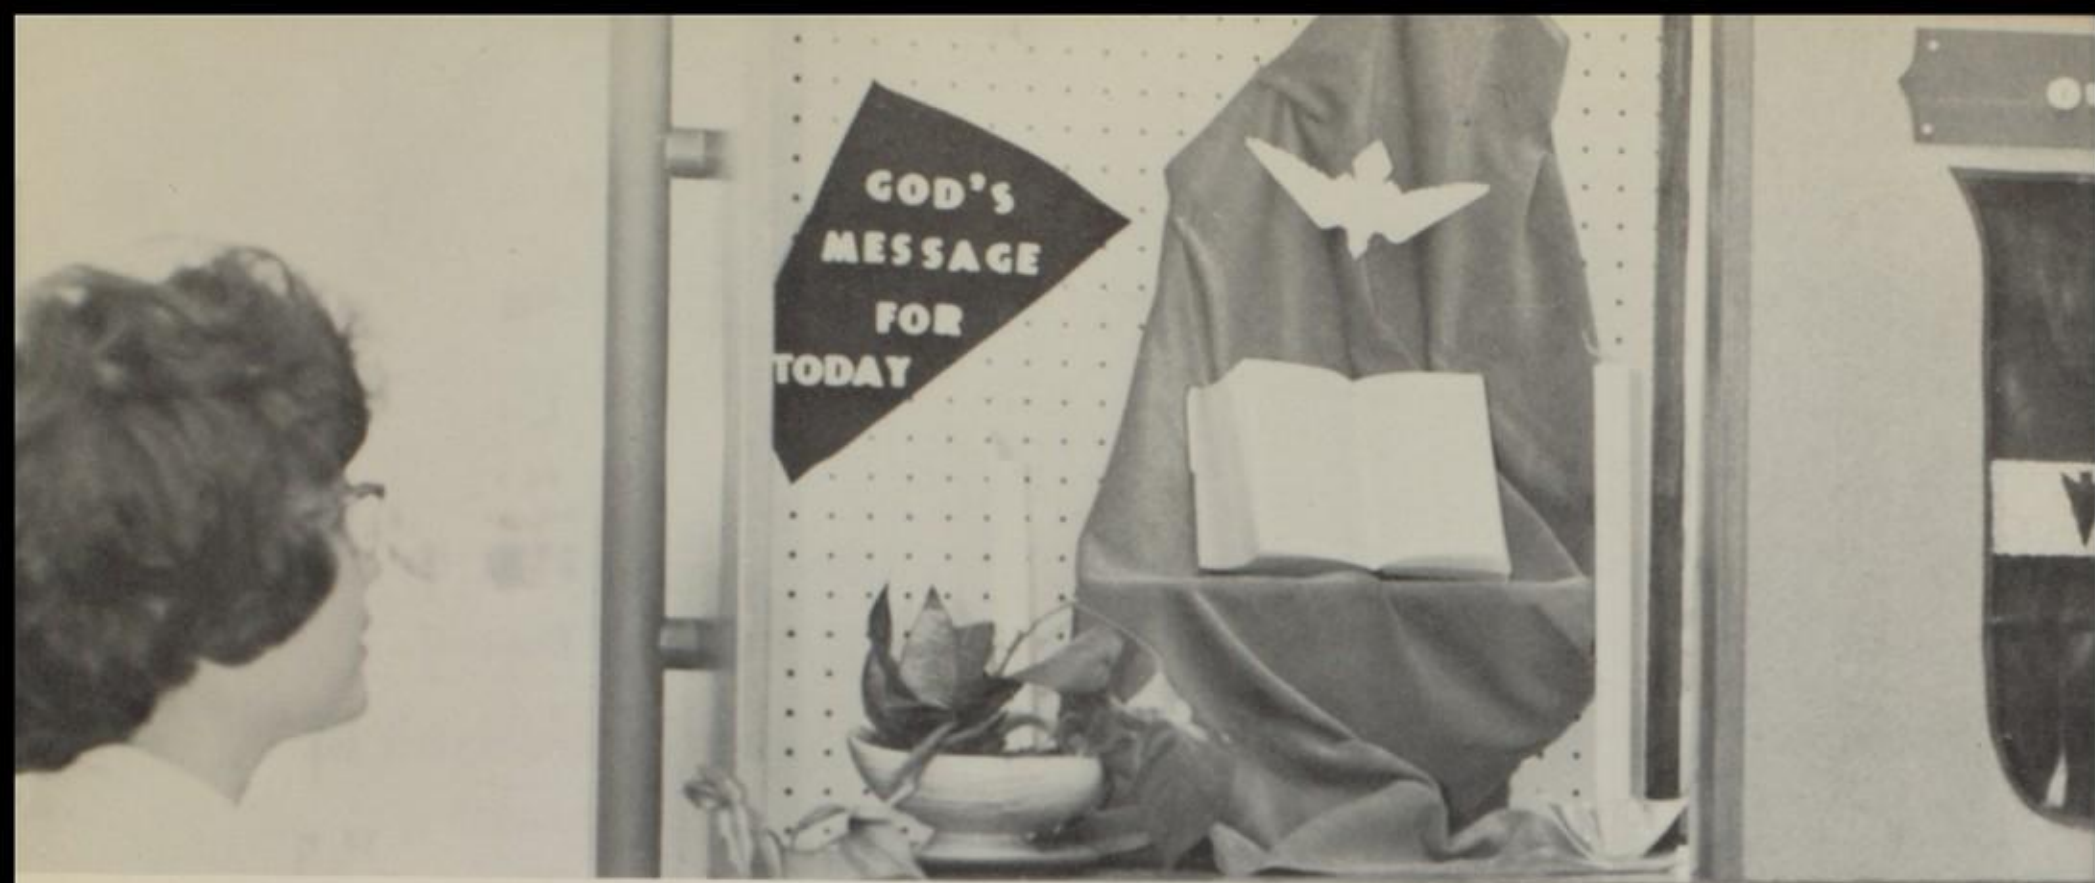

Efficiency Plus

The priests, brothers, sisters, and lay teachers are highly qualified to instruct in their particular fields. Through workshops and conferences they evaluate their work and share their experiences. The faculty spirit of togetherness is evidenced in the team teaching of Kelley instructors, who are not content with merely imparting secular knowledge but who correlate all courses with the science of sciences—RELIGION.

The Bishop Kelley Library is a storehouse of knowledge used by teachers and students of all departments from 8 a.m. until 3 p.m. Housing 3,500 volumes, the library is growing each day and will soon be the finest library in Tulsa.

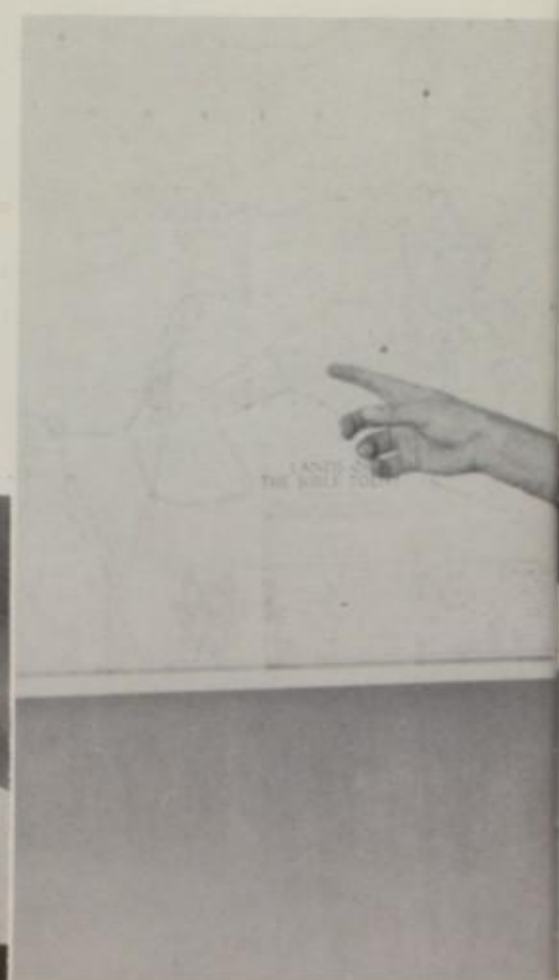

Religion Is the Heart of the Curriculum

The Religion Committee meets monthly in order that members of the department may exchange ideas and evaluate their work. Members are frequently asked to report on particular facets of their programs which have proved to be of special value.

The theology program correlates doctrine with Scripture and liturgy, not only to provide the student with a wealth of knowledge about his Faith but more especially to offer him a way of life centered in Christ.

Sister Anna David, head of the Religion Department, is the only faculty member who is a full-time teacher of theology. A member of the Oklahoma Committee of Religious Education, Sister is currently engaged in theological research at the Catholic University of America.

Brother Joseph, who teaches in three departments—theology, English, and history—while he is great in all his classes is especially GREAT in Church History.

Sister Charlene, additional to teaching three courses in theology, has two English classes. Sister is a religion and English major, who considers theology the most satisfying of all courses to teach.

The English language is always changing, and how well these teachers know it! New developments keep Brother William, Sister Alphonsine, Brother Leander, Sister Odilia, Miss Jacque Marbry, Sister Charlene, and Brother Joseph on the alert.

English Teachers Review Curriculum

To fulfill its distinctive function in the educational system, the English program at Bishop Kelley High School develops the individual student to the fullest extent of his capacity in using the English language with ever increasing competence, power, and pleasure. Included in the English courses are reading and literature, oral and written communication.

Pictured at the right is Sister Alphonsine, who specializes in speech, drama, and journalism. These elective courses Sister patterns after the type of course recommended for superior students in accelerated classes. Sister Alphonsine also teaches senior English.

Here is Brother William bringing his knowledge to the English class with imagination, sensitiveness, and enthusiasm. He has the "know-how" to make great literature alive and meaningful to the twentieth century student.

Miss Jacque Marbry is directing and stimulating Ann Darks in written composition. Together teacher and pupil evaluate progress.

Students of Miss Marbry's four freshman English classes excel in making beautiful posters related to the literature which they study.

Order is the first law in the library. Bishop Kelley's library is operated expertly by Sister Francis Clare, a full-time librarian who has a Master's degree in library science.

What's New in the Math Curriculum?

It's Greek to us but Mr. Heckenkemper (above) and Sister Marie (right) look comfortable against geometric and algebraic arabesque.

Members of the committee seem to be enjoying their meeting as they discuss the so-called "Revolution in School Mathematics." They are enthusiastic about the program with its new teaching techniques. They meet regularly to discuss ways and means of implementing the new program at Bishop Kelley High School.

Scientists plotting orbits, engineers studying specifications, accountants checking bank shortages, architects drawing floor plans, each claim a similar heritage—mastery of basic mathematical procedures.

Biology and Latin mix well for Sister Eutropia, who loves teaching both.

A dedicated math and science teacher for twenty-five years—that's Brother Bernardine. Many, many are the jobs that Brother does, but especially notable is his efficient administration of the testing program.

Exact, methodical, and friendly—that's Mrs. Evans, who teaches math and chemistry.

Teaching in three fields—theology, mathematics, and chemistry—and directing the athletic program keep Brother Philip "strictly business."

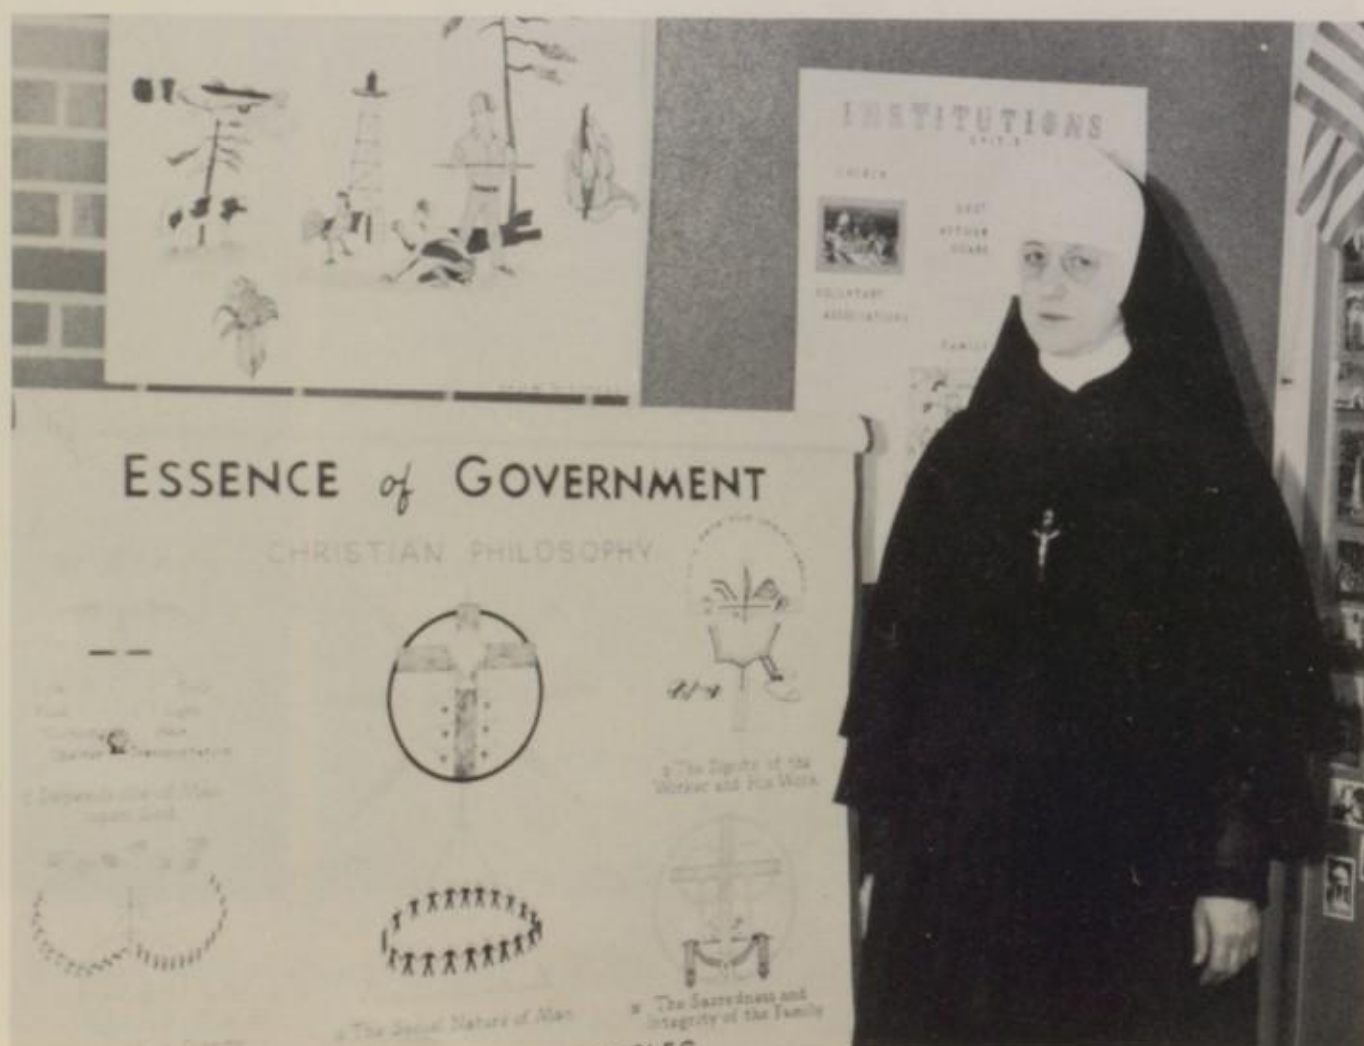

Mr. Don Tabor, Sister Ella Virginia, Mrs. Jacque Marbry and Mr. John Dillon meet briefly to discuss an approach to a new unit in social studies.

The Past Stirs Our Curiosity

Appreciation of history as a day-to-day process in which each of us is an operative factor is aided by special maps, charts, current newspapers, and visual aids. Students discuss causes and evaluate events. Thus the story of mankind becomes more than deaths, dates, and disasters. Oklahoma, American, and World history, Civics, and Social Problems make a rich curriculum contribution.

Sister Ella Virginia directs her three freshman civics classes and American History class in an interesting variety of projects which call for much initiative and "finishiative."

An array of maps made from salt and treated with shellac presented an array of vivid color in Room B 10 for several weeks.

Additional to his duties as head coach of football and basketball, Mr. Tabor teaches American History and Problems of Democracy.

It is Mr. Dillon's aim to give each freshman a firm foundation in civics so that he can understand and appreciate his state and national government.

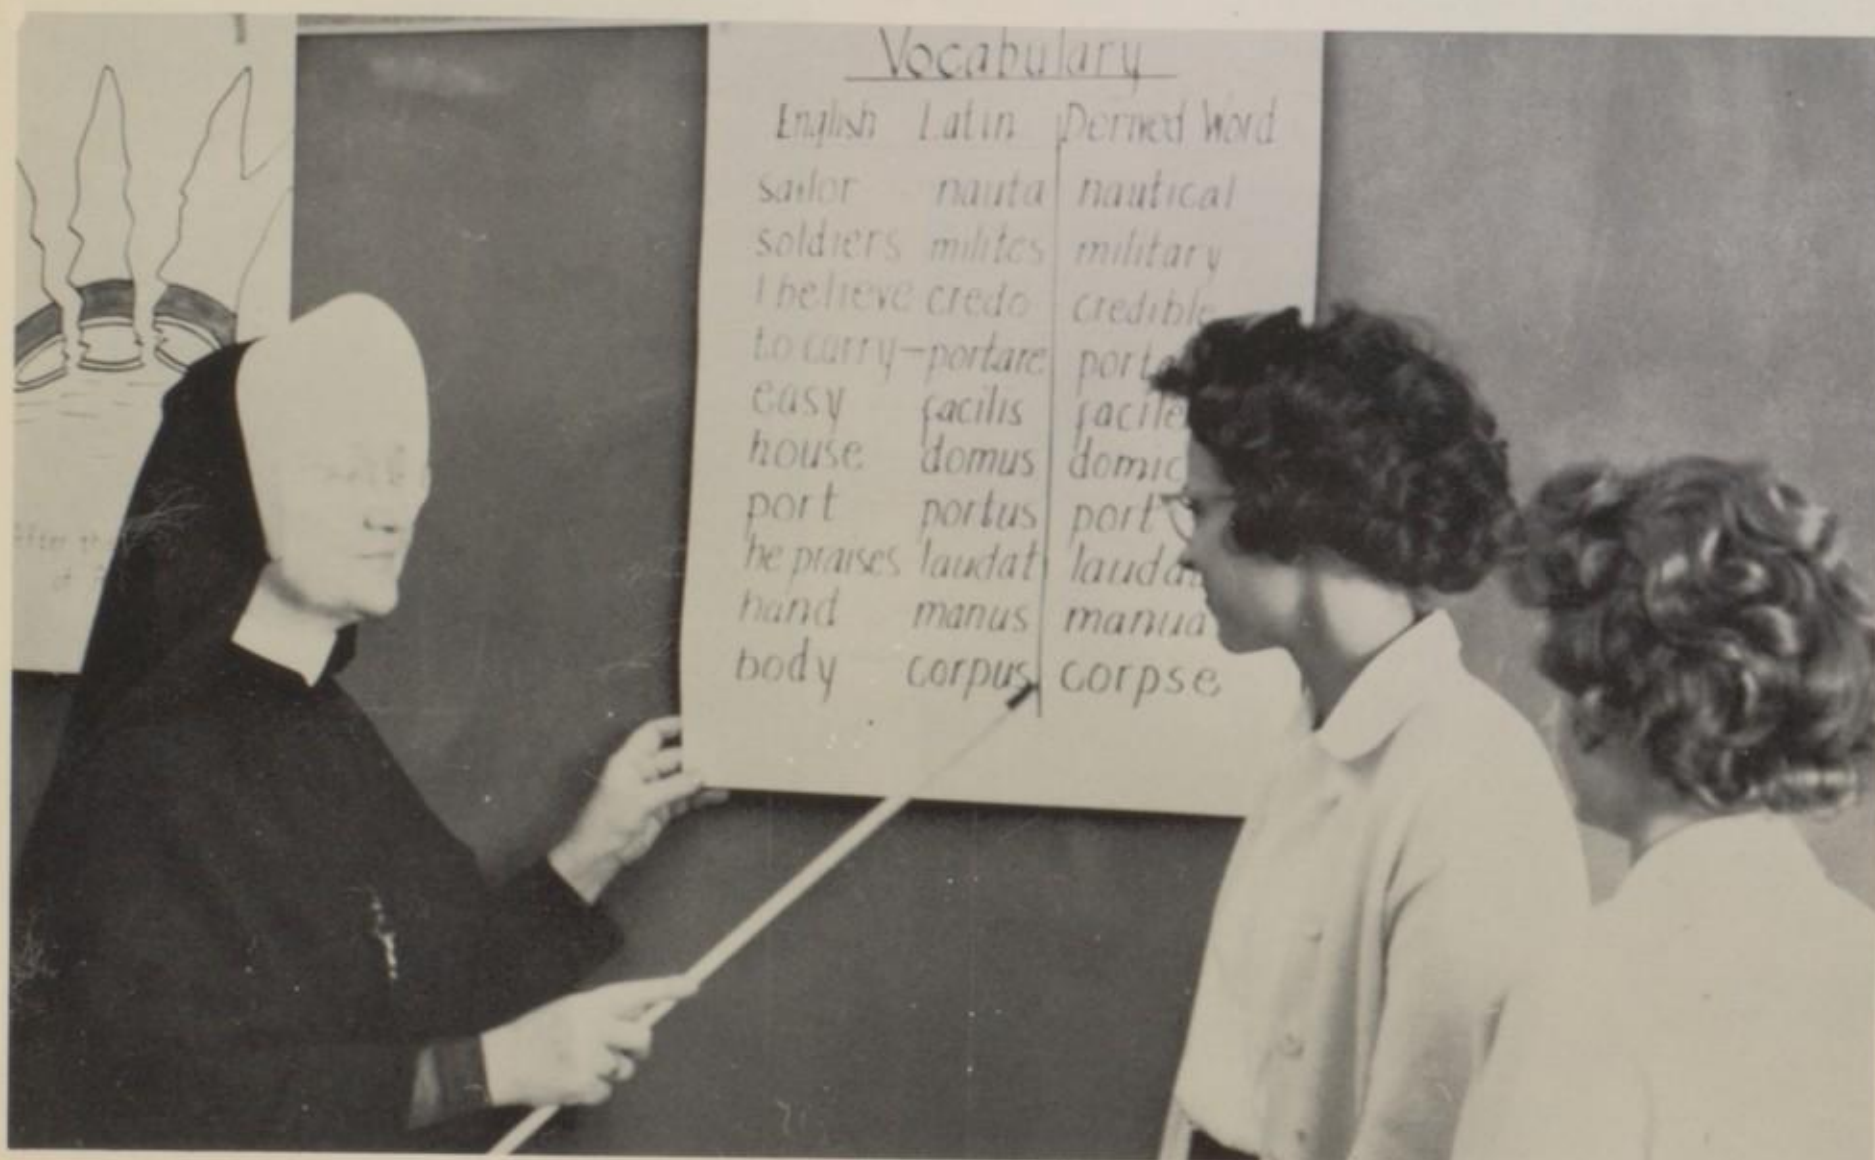

Brother Alfred is discussing Pope John XXIII's encyclical, "Mater et Magister" with a social science class.

Le Chien — Canis — El Perro

Sister Angelina Marie juggles two languages into a single class—English to Latin and Latin to English. A careful study of derivatives help to build a student's English vocabulary.

Omnia Gallia in tres partes divisa est.

Brother Henry's teaching load includes Spanish, English, commercial law and theology.

Brother Leo finds a map useful for impressing students with the vastness of Caesar's conquests.

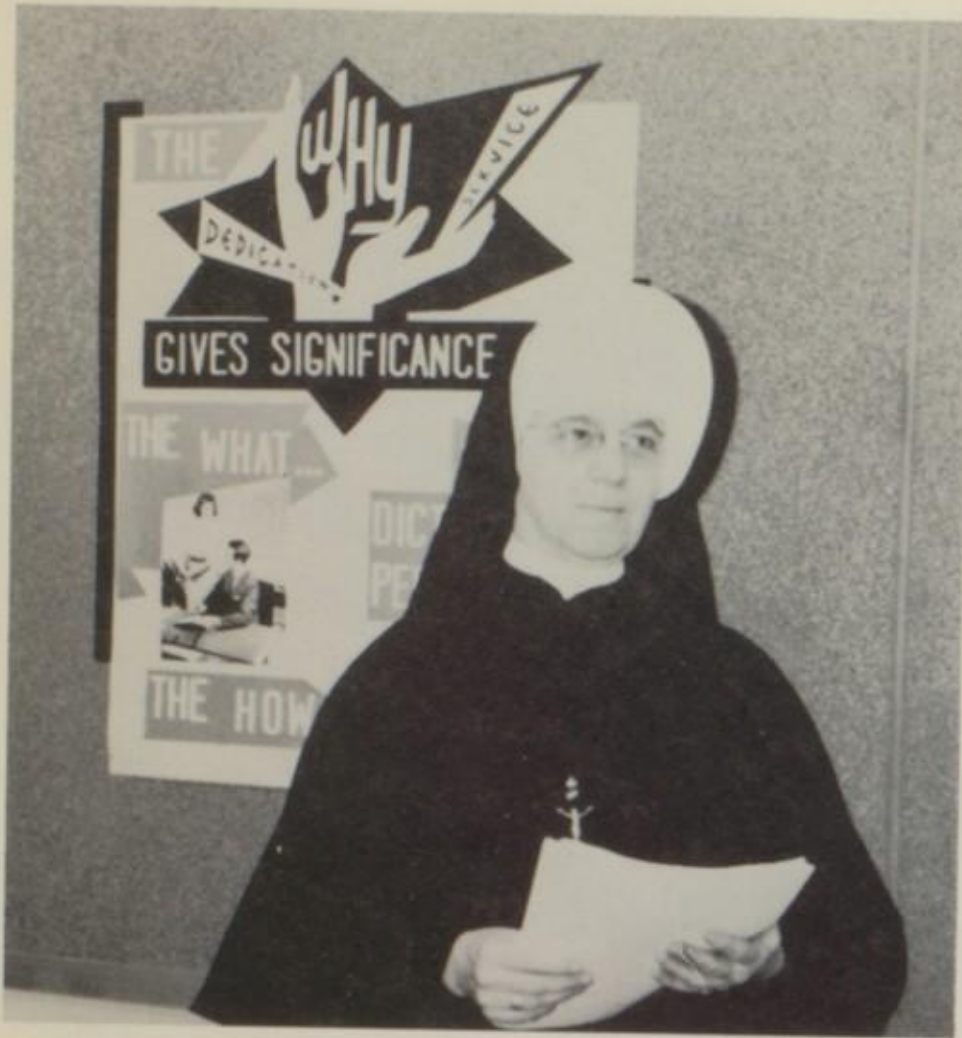

Mr. Cremin believes in giving his Latin Students much drill in conjugations and declensions.

Colorful displays of French and Spanish life enliven Mrs. Murphy's French and Spanish classes.

Essential Exact

Heading the business department is Sister Edmunda, who is also secretary of the Southern Unit of the Catholic Business Education Association.

Accuracy is vital in business education. The business department dedicates itself to providing its students with as much business acumen as is possible. There are three different values that a student interested in business may gain: college preparatory courses, job preparation courses, and courses designed for practical use.

The business education curriculum includes shorthand, typing, bookkeeping, business law, and office practice.

Bernadette Pinion is making sure that her letter is perfect before she hands it in.

itude Enforced

The Kelley Business Department has modern facilities and is equipped to give future secretaries the type of business training that is in demand in the up-to-date office.

Mary Ann Robb is using the soundscriber in her Office Practice class.

Being an English teacher as well as a typing instructor, Brother Leander is all the stricter about spelling, punctuation, and capitalization in typewritten work.

Homemaking Christian

The homemaking department of Bishop Kelley High School is a carefully integrated one. Its chief aim is to provide the student a wholesome philosophy, basic knowledge and skills vital to successful family and community life and to point toward opportunities in the home economics profession.

Jo Anne Hoffman and Lupita Nieto are learning how to use a pattern.

Additional to her three homemaking classes, Sister Liberta teaches two English classes.

"Be sure to get that seam straight!" says Mary Alice Forde to her sister Judy.

"Does it cover my knees?" Lonnie Guthrie asks Carol Norris.

Marian Dryz helps Susan choose the color that flatters her.

Stresses Family Living

Consumer responsibilities, budgeting, elements of harmonizing decor and design are popular topics. Foods and nutrition, fabrics and fashions are considered in a practical way. Preparation of menus for family meals as well as for banquets gets attention.

Ute Siemon, Judi Bright, and Dee Dee Dixon discuss the real meaning of the Christian family.

Anne Williams, Molly O'Connor, and Susan Billingsley put the final touches on their buffet table.

Sue Brehm applies her nursing skill on Pat Hendricks.

"Have you got all the silverware?" asks Paula Dignan to Betty Talley as they get ready to set the table.

Among offerings of Sister Odilia's Art Department are perspective, figure drawing, still life, and landscape drawing.

The Kelley Music Department, headed by Miss Helen Ross, offers theory, harmony, private voice lessons, and choral music.

A Healthy Body — a Fit Mind

An emotional appreciation of good sportsmanship helps qualify girls and boys for fuller lives. Physical education in some form is required for graduation from Kelley.

Boys' division includes major competitive sports, individual sports, and self testing activities.

Girls' division offers team sports, individual sports, folk and modern dancing, tumbling, and trampoline work.

Together We Achieve

The building of Christian ideals should be the paramount achievement in the life of every student at Bishop Kelley High School, for like the ripples of a pool, high ideals reach out further and further to touch and improve many lives.

Bishop Kelley High School is built upon a combination of ideals, which are the culmination of the efforts and contributions, the hopes and the aspirations of its students. With its Christ-Centered philosophy, the school aims to graduate young people marked off by a special kind of living—one that is CHRISTIAN twenty-four hours a day.

Whatever they may be—crusaders, artists, inventors, or just average Americans—Kelley students will always have a clear, single vision for which they are prepared to give their all.

Students become more aware of the purpose of their Catholic education as they stop at the library display case viewed through a glass wall which separates the library from the Student Commons.

Exemplify Class Leadership

The Senior Class of 1962 proudly leaves to underclassmen of Bishop Kelley High School the great heritage of leadership and unity. Under the forceful leadership of their class officers and homeroom representatives, the class has never been motivated by selfish aims but has always worked for the welfare of the school—for a bigger and better Bishop Kelley High School.

The joke must be on Pat Cunningham, president of B 1, as fellow officers Bernadette Pinion, president of B 2; Kay Travis, representative of B 2; Stephen Kerr, representative of C 1; Tucker McHugh, president of C 1; Sue ShROUT, representative of B 1, try to conceal mirth and display dignity.

Seniors Do Good

Whether it's doing a big decorating job the night before a game or painting the parking lot on Saturdays, the seniors are ready and willing to do it. They work hard for the school at large as well as for the many clubs of which they are active members. Because the seniors have proved time and time again that they can be depended on, teachers never hesitate to ask them to spearhead many of the projects of the school.

Get the Job Done

As evidence that the seniors always get the job done, we need only look at the picture to the right. Not only do they have initiative but also "finishiative." A good example of senior drive is exemplified by Jack Lafferty's participation in the Coronation Ball in spite of the sprained ankle he sustained in the football game the previous night.

With Time for

"All work and no play makes seniors a dull class." No, the Senior Class of 1962 will not go down in history as a dull class. Well do they realize the need of a well-rounded social life program.

Dances, be they sock hops or elegant formal balls, are well attended by the seniors. Wholehearted participation in rallies, assemblies, picnics, and parties adds spice to the life of Kelley seniors.

Depicted in the lower left corner of this page is a skating race senior boys are enjoying. Finishing first is Tom Bruner with Jim Otterstrom offering a challenging second. Pat McMahon defeats Dick Olsen for third place as other unidentified boys try for a position.

After the sophomores completed the candy-striping of the breezeways during homecoming festivities, a thunderstorm soon "melted" the decorations. This "never-say-die" class went back to work the next day, salvaged some of the crepe paper, and once again curtained the breezeways with red and white.

Surprisingly soon, freshmen learned to get along in high school and were ready to contribute their share to school activities. Notable is the originality the freshmen show in the arranging of the bulletin boards in their homerooms. The freshmen have proved that they are a scholarly class, too. The first quarter honor roll listed nine of their class rating an "A" average and sixty-seven a "B."

Together We Give Service

Kelleyites like to get together. Be it a pep club, honor society, dramatics or science club, common interests knit students more closely together.

Members obligate themselves to uphold traditions worthy of service.

Ideals of Bishop Kelley clubs and organizations feature unselfish giving of time and talent to carry on club programs. This ability to contribute to overall welfare builds a sense of leadership useful in later life.

Perpetuating old clubs builds loyalty. Creating new ones stimulates pride.

A Bishop Kelley policy, as far as clubs are concerned, is to start a club only when there is a need and an interest. For a club to be recognized, there must be a set of specific objectives. Without a definite goal, clubs easily lose their sense of direction. If an organization does not develop in its members leadership, a spirit of cooperation, and a sense of responsibility, it defeats the very purpose for its existence.

Students of Bishop Kelley take a pride in their clubs precisely because ALL members work together for the common good.

All school elections are preceded by spirited campaigns during which students have an opportunity to learn of the qualifications of the candidates running for office. Democratic procedures are used for all club elections. Pictured above is Jack Lafferty as he throws his hat into the ring for the office of student council president.

Student Council

A turkey in every Christmas basket, a new American flag for Kelley assemblies, roller skating parties for the student body, and workshops for leadership training—these are but a few of the many projects of the Student Council of Bishop Kelley.

This nucleus for every other club, the Student Council charts all organizations, co-ordinates co-curricular activities, and acts as a liaison between faculty and students.

The moderators are Brother Leo and Sister Liberta.

Pep Club

PEP! PEP! HOORAY!

With an effervescent sparkle and a syncopated chant, the Pep Club of Bishop Kelley initiates the spirit that is eagerly displayed in every school activity.

"Organization plus" is the key work of the Pep Club. Lively football and basketball assemblies, beautiful coronation ceremonies, active support of athletic events—all evolve from this indispensable and dedicated school organization.

Pep Club moderator is Sister Eutropia.

Choral Club

OFF KEY—NOT WE!

This is the enthusiastic note that resounds from the Choral Club at Bishop Kelley. Industriosly, they not only practice their songs to perfection but design their own scenery. Their "Night Before Christmas" and "Springtime" settings lent beauty and atmosphere to their lovely concerts.

Directing the group is Miss Helen Ross, who holds a Master's degree in voice.

Philharmonic Phils

It is a fabled truth that the music world of high school students is filled with nothing but rock 'n roll and jazz, with symphonic music left out entirely. But these twenty-nine Kelley boys and girls completely disprove this idea.

On twelve Monday nights throughout the year, the Phils and Debs are seen attending the Philharmonic concerts, learning to appreciate musical masterpieces.

Dramatics Club

"Ready on the set!" Poised and perfected, the actors and actresses began their debut on the stage with a poignant presentation of Seventeenth Summer. This event featured the climax of the hard-working members of the Dramatics Club and their director, Sister Alphonsine.

From pantomimes to campaign speeches, from socio-dramas to monologues—the Dramatics Club carefully explores the vast and spacious speech world.

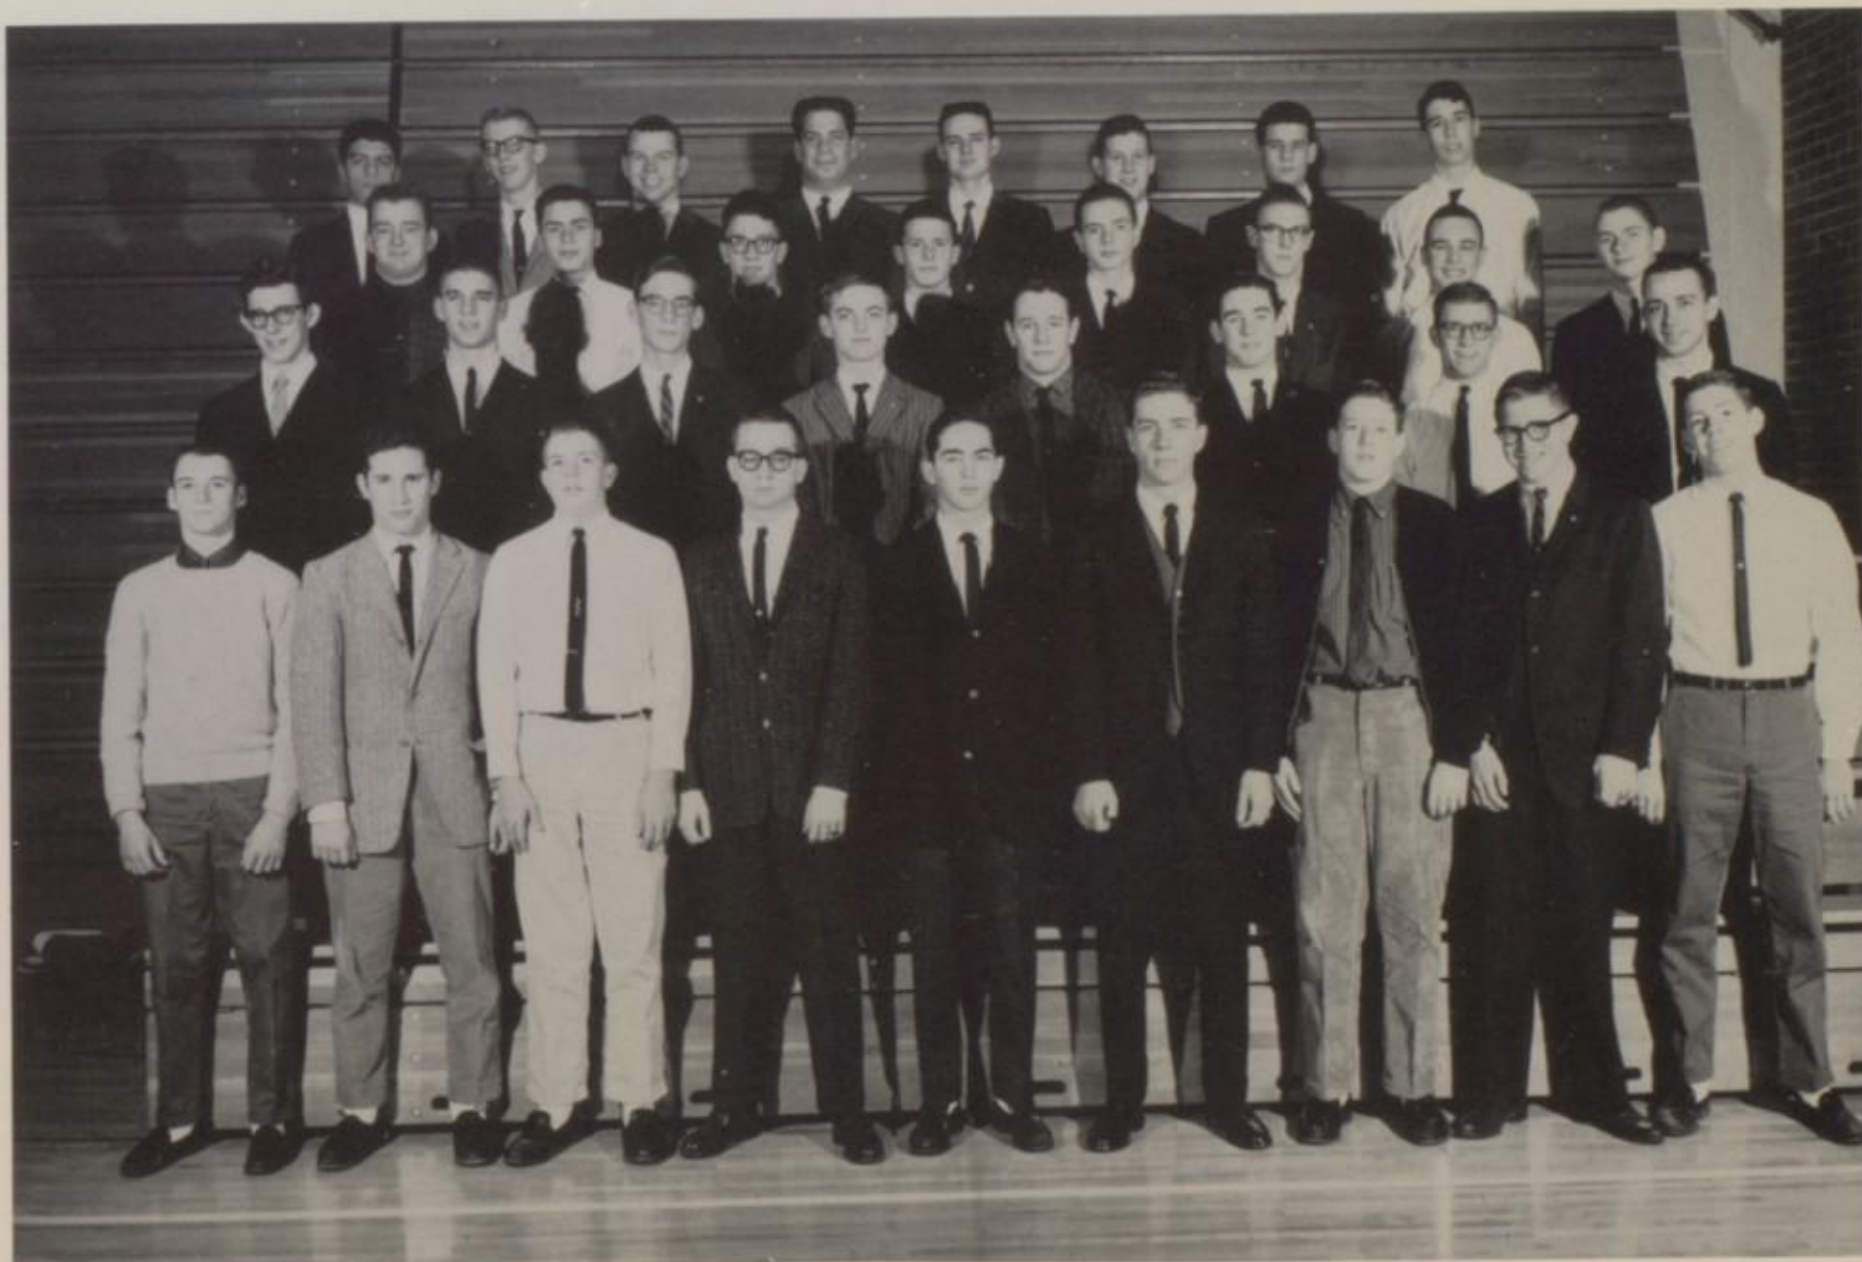

Key Club

"Service to many and fun for all" perfectly describes the Key Club of Bishop Kelley. Sponsored by the Utica Square Kiwanis, the active Key Club members are credited with the painting of the Kelley parking lot, the buying of unabridged English dictionaries, and a host of other worthwhile and useful projects.

Brother Henry is Key Club sponsor.

CROSIER and CREST Staff

Stop the presses! Although this cry is not frequently heard in the Bishop Kelley journalism newsroom, the problems of composing, proofreading, and meeting deadlines are very much a part of the Crosier and Crest staff.

Publishing the monthly newspaper and the yearbook, these busy students, in workshop fashion, learn while they write and write while they learn.

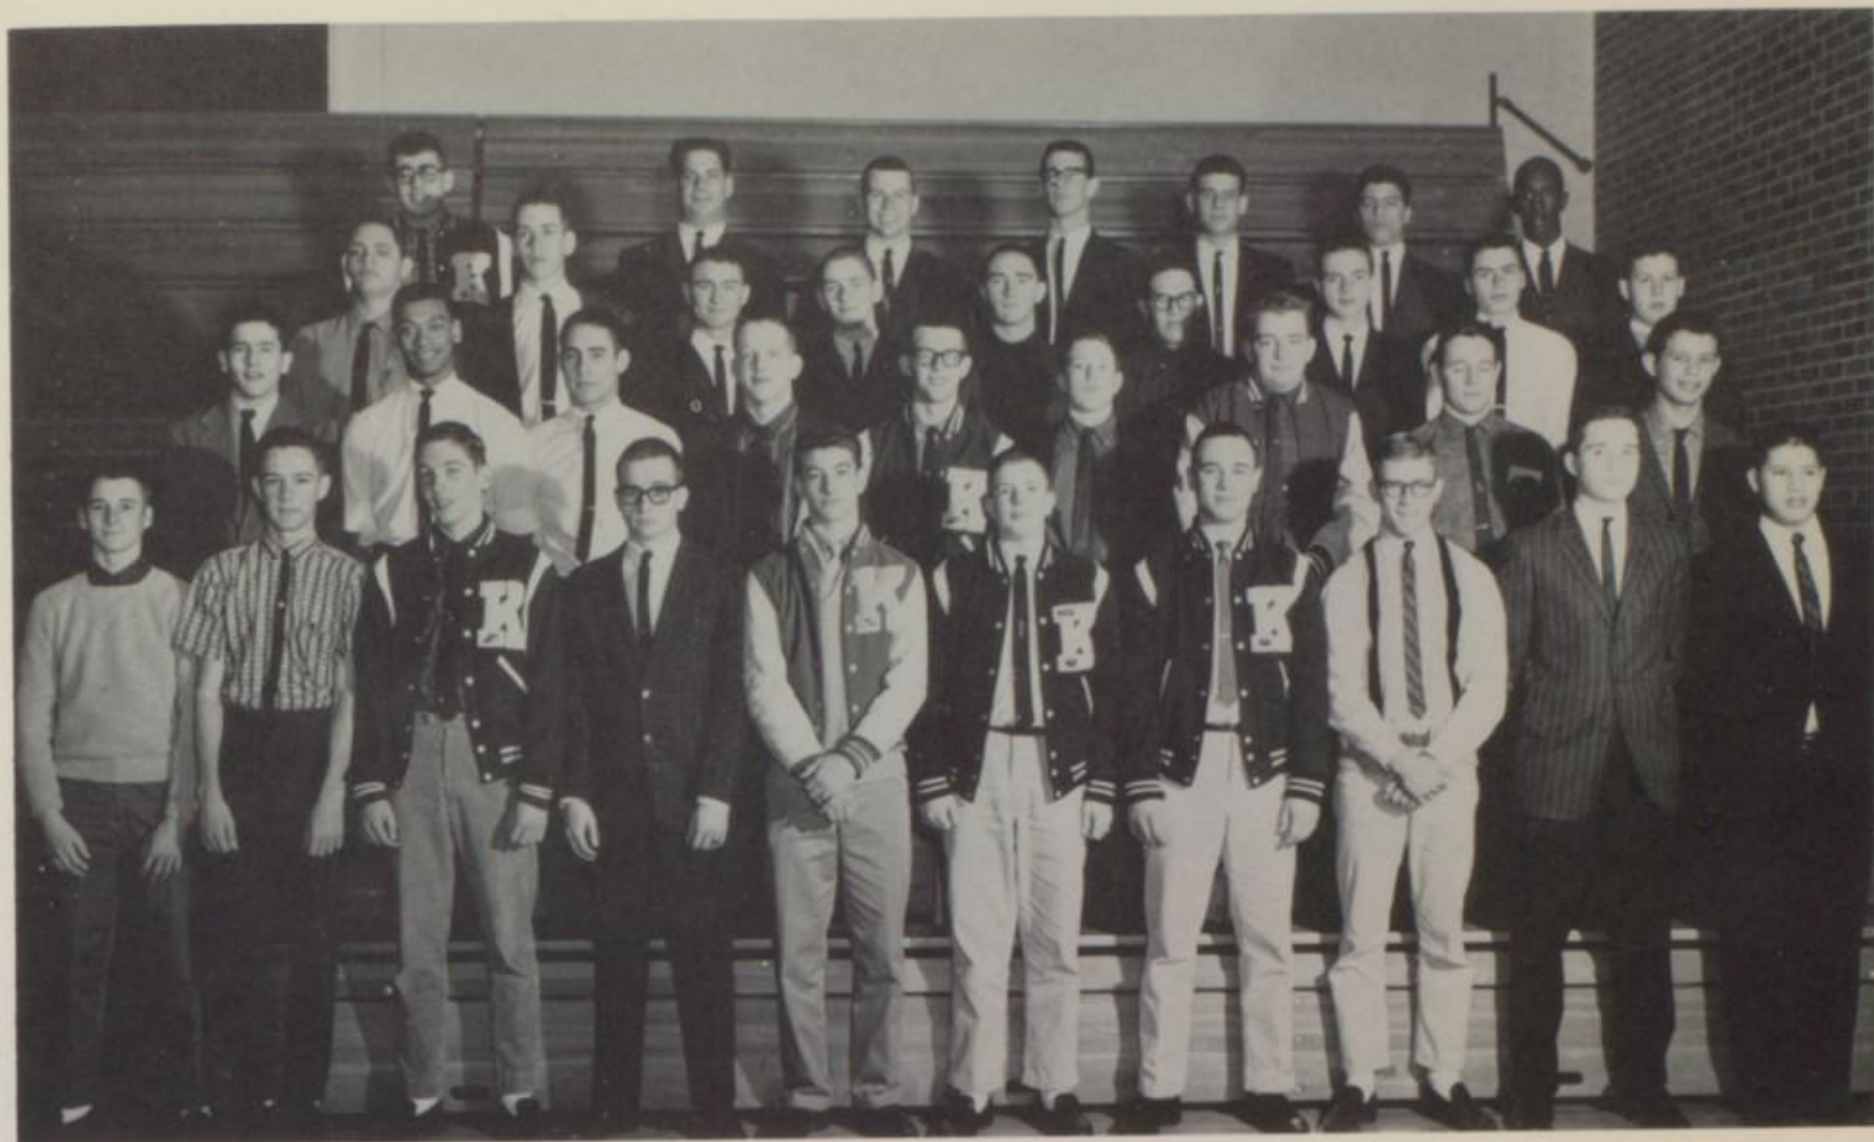

The journalism class is under the direction of Sister Alphonsine.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club, representing every sport at Bishop Kelley, co-ordinates the athletic program and inspires a feeling of unity among all Kelley athletes.

Under Brother Philip and Coach Don Tabor, the members chose the style of letter jackets and defined qualifications for lettering.

"The amino acid group thus defined shows these characteristics in a weak phenol solution . . ." These words and others similar to them are often heard at Science Club meetings and school lectures sponsored by the Science Club. Under a grant from the National Science Foundation, Doctor Louis Locatell, a Tulsa University professor, has explored the fascinating field of biochemistry with the young scientists. Mrs. Evans is sponsor of the club.

Together We Win and Lose

This was a year in which minor sports dominated the winner's circle at Kelley. A united front, however, was presented at all times in backing the effort made by every athlete.

The climax of the football season was also the finale for the departing seniors as the Comets, under new Head Coach Don Tabor, upset Cascia Hall, 14-12. The team had won only one out of seven encounters.

With the nucleus of last year's tournament champions graduated, the new basketball mentor, again Mr. Tabor, had his work cut out for him—that of unifying an inexperienced squad. Another disappointing start was rectified by a strong finish, leaving some confident foes stunned.

A consistent winner was unveiled with the school's first year of varsity wrestling. Coach Jim Cremin's grapplers put together an enviable 8-2-1 record.

Track saw an initially weak team set out to regain its State Catholic title, which it relinquished last year. A typically small squad was used to full advantage by Coach Don Badinelli.

A strong nine built high hopes that the baseball trophy would enhance the school trophy case. Doctor Harold Wheatley did a great job in utilizing the returning lettermen and building a spirited baseball team.

Half-time of the McLain game, and Coach Tabor congratulates the entire squad for its best performance to date. He gave special praise for the oneness exhibited by the team—the togetherness shown from the last man on the bench to the foremost ball carrier. This spirit continued throughout the last two quarters of the contest as the Comets met defeat valiantly, 6-0.

New Coach Plus Young Squad

DON TABOR
Head Coach

Kelley's 1961 gridiron season was launched under new head coach Don Tabor on September 8 and found the Comets losing to conference foe St. Mary's of Oklahoma City, 32-14.

A week later Kelley met defeat at the hands of the Drum-right Tornadoes, 18-0, in a non-league game.

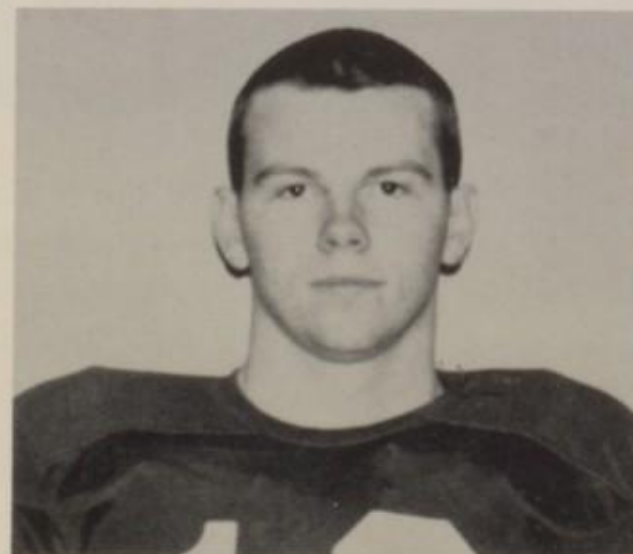

In the third game of the year the powerful Hale Rangers crushed the Comets by a rousing 50-6 score.

Kelley's second conference defeat came when the Irish of McGuinness trampled their Tulsa rivals, 49-0, in Oklahoma City.

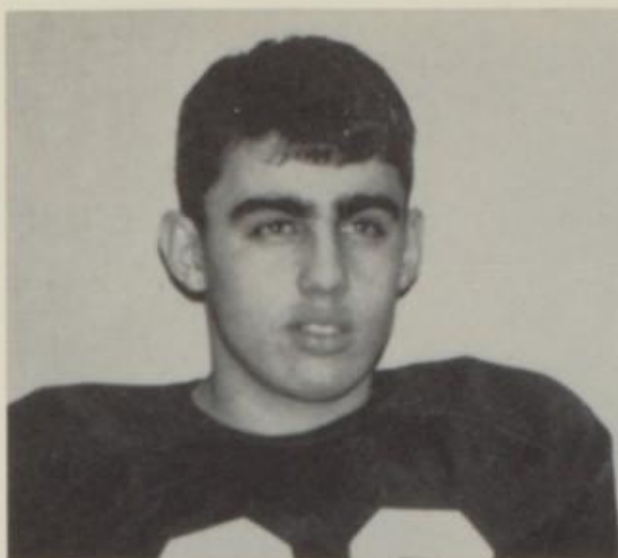

The first win of the season occurred when Kelley amassed ten touchdowns to wallop the Keifer Trojans 74-0.

Kelley's fifth defeat of the year came in a heart-breaking 6-0 loss to the McLain Scots in a bruising, hard-fought battle.

The Comets then traveled to Shawnee for a league contest with St. Gregory's and took a 28-0 licking from the Knights.

Kelley Wrestlers Make a Good Start

This being the first year Kelley has had a varsity wrestling team, their fine 9-2-1 record against equal competition seems like a good beginning for the new sport. Next year's competition will be even more rigid when Kelley wrestles varsity teams from the local high schools. This year's schedule included "B" teams from AA schools mixed with several varsity opponents.

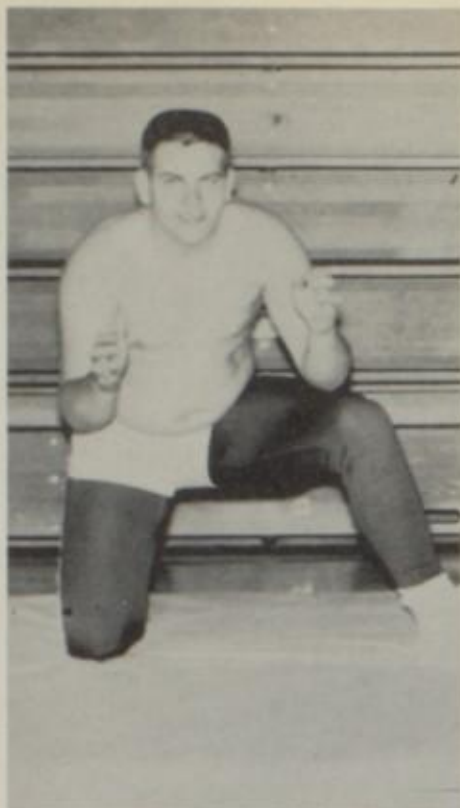

Coach Jim Cremin has had his hands full in coaching both the varsity and frosh, but he has done a commendable job. He produced one Edison Tourney champ in Joe Martinez, who is only a sophomore. Coach Cremin's material was made up mostly of Kelley's junior city champs of last year. The freshmen this year were 3-2-1 on the season with a fourth place in the regional tourney and a seventh place in the state tourney.

Martinez was given the most outstanding wrestler award for the varsity team, and Danny O'Brien was the frosh outstanding grappler.

Comet roundballers, with Don Tabor succeeding Dick Courtier as head coach, opened their 20 game schedule on December 1 with five lettermen returning to action.

After tasting defeat in their first two encounters, the Comets advanced to the finals of the Hale Tournament by dumping the McLain Scots, 57-42. Then they bowed to the Vinita Hornets, 45-40, to finish second. From there Kelley went on to lose their next eight contests before clipping McLain again in a thriller, 48-46. The Comets then scored upset victories over St. Gregories, 40-38, and Cascia Hall, 56-42, in the final month of the year. They ended the regular season in the cellar of the Catholic Conference with a 2-6 record and held an overall mark of 4-16.

On March 2 Kelley opened action in the Catholic state tournament against. The defending state champions were nudged by the Commandoes, 38-36, and dropped into the consolation bracket. There they defeated St. Mary's, 51-40, and lost to Cascia again, 53-44, in the same afternoon to finish in fourth place. This made Kelley's overall record for the year 5-18.

Young Track Team Displays Talent

Coach Don Badinelli advises John Ammon before a local meet.

Coach Don Badinelli's third year at Kelley sees him faced with a relatively young but talented team. The Comet trackmen have only four returning lettermen. The young team, lacking the necessary depth in individual events, views a steady buildup in power for the future.

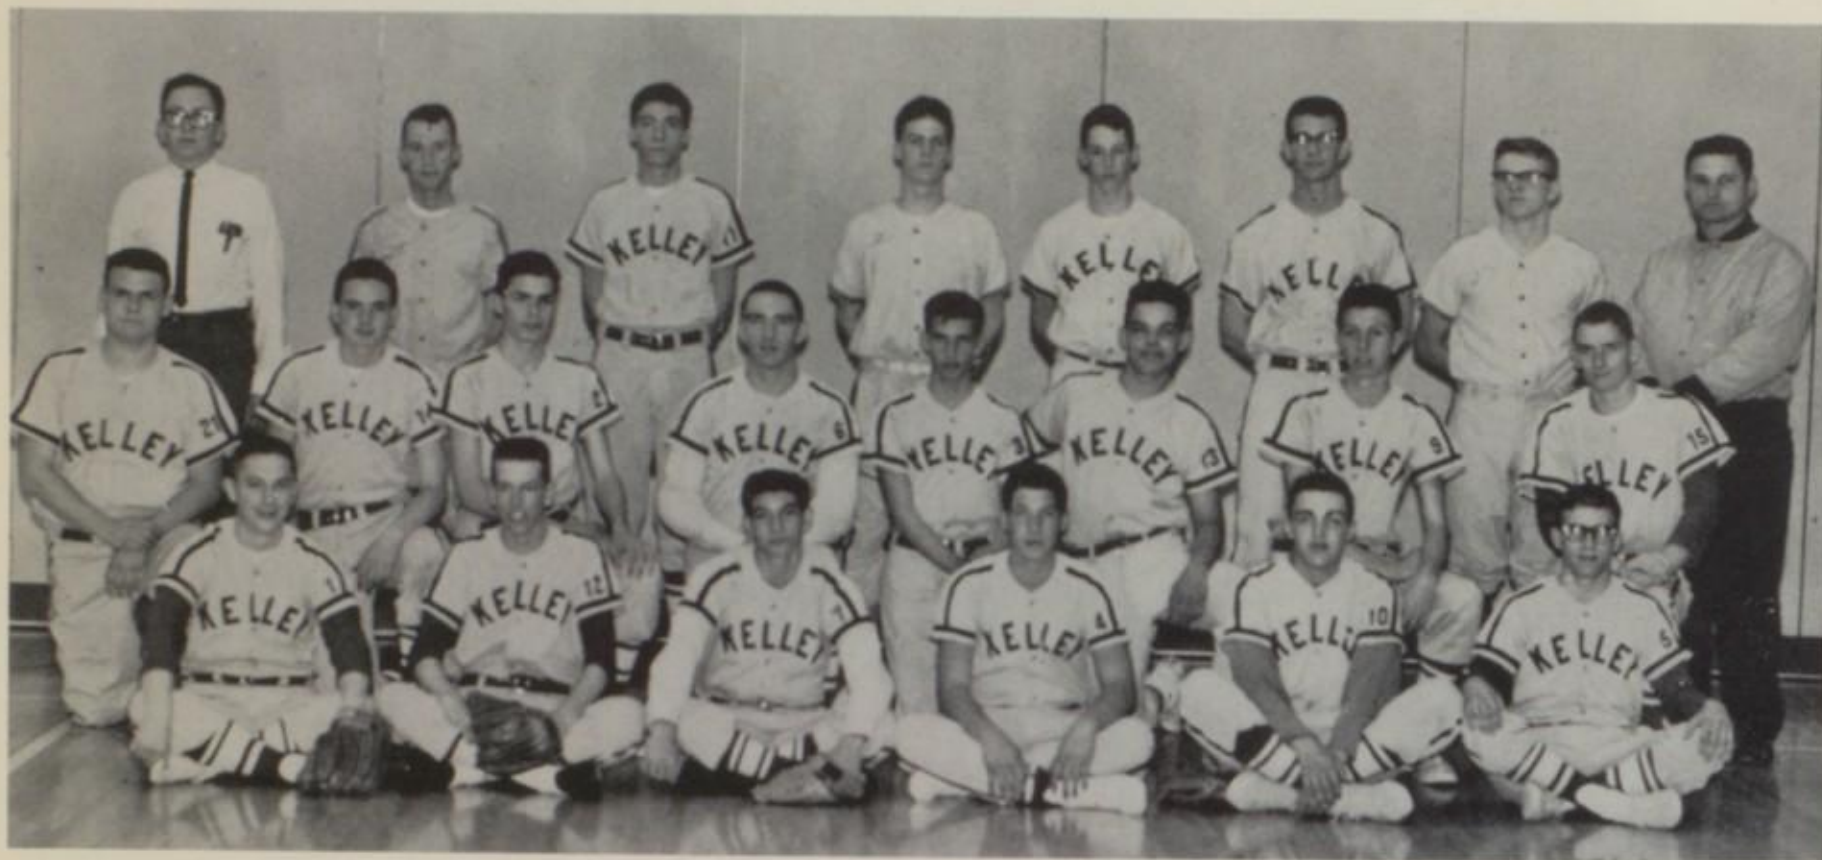

Tom Wolfe puts the shot as weight men Buckendorf, Winters, Marlow, Ward, Frohnappfel, Brooks, Bollinger, Roach, and Corbbrey look on.

Pole vaulter Ray LeBlanc displays his jumping ability in a practice pose.

J. C. Lawson shows winning form as he leaps out over nineteen feet.

Baseball Team Makes Run for League Title

Coach "Doc" Wheatley has taken a relatively inexperienced squad and built it into a top contender for the conference championship. The 1962 edition of the Kelley baseball team shows only four returning lettermen from last year's conference runners-up. The team has shown fine defense and outstanding pitching in the early season games. To date, the Comets have won their only season battle, a shutout over St. Gregory's.

Here "Doc" is moving the Kelley rightfielder into position.

A Booker T. Washington player is caught "off-guard" by lefty Jim Gifford's fine pick-off motion. The action, in sequence, shows: (1) Bill Favor holding runner on first base, (2) Runner breaks for second, realizing he has been caught off first; Bill fires to second forcing runner to break back to first, (3) Otterstrom's return throw is too late and the runner is safe at first base.

Jim Gifford, who is considered by many to be the top left-handed pitcher in the Tulsa area, warms up before a game. His top performance thus far has been a 1-hit shutout over St. Gregory's on March 24. Since Jim is only a junior this year, Kelléy and Coach Weatley are looking forward to many more great performances.

Together We Pray and Play

Gaiety and fun shine through school life with a glow that will remain in Kelleyite hearts.

Some of the suspenseful and happy moments are remembered by only a few, others by all.

Do you remember the football royalty chosen and crowned in anticipation and splendor? The dances and victory parties that were prominent in the 1961-62 social whirl? School spirit, revived in every pep rally? Classics gaining a repeat score as the Dramatics Club presented Seventeenth Summer? Merit and scholarship recognized in the Catholic High School Bowl, C.B.E.A. contest, and the Edmond scholastic rally? The competitive spirit promoted by the ticket race for the senior play? The hours and hours of hard work intermingled with fun putting out the Crest and Crosier?

Can you recall what peace and serenity you experienced during those precious days of the annual retreat? The crowning of Our Blessed Lady?

Will you ever forget the loveliest night of the year—your junior-senior prom?

And what about the night you graduated from Bishop Kelley High School?

All these happy moments passed, but they will always be "those moments to remember."

The ballroom of the Student Activities Building at the University of Tulsa is the setting of the football coronation ball. A record crowd of Kelley students enjoyed the entertainment honoring the football royalty.

Student Council Officers Installed

Bill Temple, retiring Student Council president, presents a lighted candle to Jack Lafferty, newly elected president, with the words, "This gleaming white taper will help you keep your path of leadership pure and shining throughout the coming year." Jack then promises to strive for better school government and improvement of the school.

Vice-President Mary Lawson receives a red taper (representative of joy and strength from Student Council work that has been done well) from her predecessor, Chris Dove, and promises to serve faithfully with the words, "I do solemnly accept the office and promise to serve to the best of my ability."

Eddie Morrison is told how important his job of treasurer is to the organization by Jack Lafferty, retiring Student Council treasurer. Morrison is installed with the words, "I will keep a careful record of all money transactions which may involve the Student Council and will render any other service that my official position might suggest."

Eddie Morrison gives his treasurer's report to the Student Council representatives during a meeting in the library. The general meeting is held on every other Wednesday, while officers' meetings are usually held on the preceding Monday.

Reps Voice Opinions in Open Forum

Out-going secretary Mary Virginia Lawson tells successor Barbara Forman, that her job is one of trust and requires strength and duty. Barbara then answers with the words, "I do solemnly promise to keep all minutes and records of student proceedings faithfully and accurately." The gold taper is symbolic of the untarnished torch of service.

A "Back to School" dance, held in the school cafeteria, climaxed Orientation Week at Bishop Kelley.

Kelley Rocks n' Rolls at Roller Rock

Peals of laughter and cries of pain as the students hit the floor were heard at the Student Council roller skating party. The highlight of the evening was the race between the Brothers, with Brother William winning.

All Kelleyites, whether sure-footed or shaky, enjoyed the roller skating recreation.

Kelley Entertains CBEA With Speech, Smile, and Song

Sue Shrout, Kelley senior, presents a monologue entitled "Bringing 'em up."

Terri Lathan, senior cheerleader, gives a humorous monologue, "Personality Plus."

Barbara Todd, outstanding vocalist and president of the Choral Club, sings "Carmena."

Emcee Gwen Lewis welcomes the CBEA organization to Tulsa in general and to Kelley in particular during the talent show held in the BK gym.

Boys and Girls

October

Our famed sports columnist Joe Zizzi manages to "climb down from the gym rafters" long enough to be a representative in the Student Council, vice-president of the Philharmonic Phils and member of the Key Club.

Sue Shrout, whose acting ability as a ten year old, was enthusiastically applauded during the play, Seventeenth Summer, is a girl whom everyone knows and everyone likes. She is secretary of the Dramatics Club and member of the Pep Club.

November

"Leadership plus" describes our Student Council president Jack Lafferty. Along with this time-consuming job, Jack works on the Crest and Crosier staffs, is a member of the Key Club, and was co-captain of the Comets this season.

Joanne Beshara, as president of the Pep Club, has the hardest job any girl can have at Kelley. A combination of firmness and kindness has won her the respect of Pep Clubbers and teachers alike.

of the Month

December

Dick Olsen, Kelley's own "Mr. Wizard," has climbed up the executive ladder here at Bishop Kelley. He is senior vice-president, treasurer of the Key Club, Student Council rep, and co-captain of the football team.

With a winning smile for everybody from the seniors down to the freshmen Sherry Siebert carries out her duties as vice-president of the Pep Club. To those who saw Seventeenth Summer, she is better known as "Hey, Mom!"

January

Mr. Kelley, himself, John Ammon has the friendliness and spirit fitting to this high honor. John can truly be classified as a sportsman, lettering in three major sports.

As co-editor of the Crest, Jo Ann McFadden is, without a doubt, the busiest senior around Kelley. In between year-book deadlines, Jo Ann manages to squeeze in time for the senior play, Student Council, Dramatics Club, Pep Club, and Crosier staff.

Boys and Girls

February

Co-captain of the "Wrestling Comets," Bill Mendenhall finished with a 9-1-1 record. But, even before wrestling comes Bill's first love—water sports!

Molly O'Connor is perhaps best known as "Miss Howdy." This title was given her early in September when she was elected the friendliest senior girl. Among her extra-curriculars are Pep Club and Symphony Debs.

March

Scott Harper, the "going-est" senior at Kelley, rounds out his already tough job as president of the Key Club with membership in the Student Council and Philharmonic Phils. The Coachmen—a singing quartet—takes up the remainder of Scott's school activities.

"Little but mighty," Mary Virginia Lawson tackled the big job of Student Council vice-president and has come through with flying colors. This pint-sized pixie has enveloped one and all with her big personality.

of the Month

April

The High School Bowl "Whiz," Mike Winters, has made the most of his four years of high school education by being a National Merit finalist. Mike is also interested in the Key Club.

Joan Presley—scholar, football maid-of-honor, Student Council rep, Pep Club member, Crest co-editor—is one Kelley girl who excels in curriculars and extra-curriculars.

May

Pat Cremin, the Jim Bishop of the Kelley newspaper world, knows the "ins" and "outs" of journalistic writing, copy-reading, and proofreading. Shouldering the responsibility of Crosier editor-in-chief, Pat has the ability to make a school newspaper "tops."

As Miss Kelley and as head cheerleader, Julie Travers exemplifies the characteristics that every Kelley girl should possess—spirit, loyalty, ingenuity, truthfulness, and good humor.

Mr. and Miss Kelley II

Elected in a school-wide poll as Mr. and Miss Kelley, John Ammon and Julie Travers represent the special KELLEY school spirit—scholarship, service, character, and leadership—ALL blended together.

May Queen

Susan Ward was everybody's choice for May Queen, whose privilege it was to crown Our Blessed Lady in an impressive ceremony on May 1.

Sister Sylvia, Sister Charlene, Mother Denise, Father Brousseau, and Sister Louis Marie enjoy a forum discussion on the importance of religious vocations.

Vocation Talks Stimulate Students

Father Gerald Brousseau gives the sophomore girls an interesting insight into the life of a priest or a religious.

Speaking to the senior marriage course class, Mr. Bob McKissick points out the importance of a Catholic approach to marriage.

Seniors Anticipate Graduation With Mixed Feelings

"Not quite 5'3", says Bernadette Pinion to Susan Ward, as Joan Presley is being measured for her graduation gown.

Bernadette Pinion carefully measures Barbara Grubbs' head to determine the correct cap size she should order.

It's almost that time again! Final exams are coming, invitations are mailed, and graduation plans are being made.

The seniors have
 . . . misty eyes because they are leaving their high school friends.
 . . . bright smiles because they are facing a new life in the college or business world.
 . . . hopeful, expectant faces because they are on the threshold of adulthood—the future that is theirs.

LIVE MODERN . . . FOR LESS

NATURAL GAS IS THRIFTIEST / FASTEST / SAFEST / UNFAILING

You can live modern for less with natural gas . . . the modern fuel. Ingenious gas does everything for you at the lowest operating cost. Natural gas is 5 times safer than any other household fuel, and is fastest, too.

At the twist of a dial, the ingenious gas flame is instantly there, waiting to serve you. Unfailing natural gas comes to you thru weather-protected underground lines . . . always ready to work for you when you need it.

For the fastest, safest, thriftiest appliances available, see your gas appliance dealer.

Pat, It was a pleasure for me to have had a small hand in shaping your intellect and personality. 12 years
the good work.

John E. Dillon
P.S. Thank you for the fine effort and spirit you displayed.

Pat —
Believe yourself
if that's all right.

Pat —
hi, Pat
how's tricks?
How's that for originality?
Connie.

I at least know
you the people
I'll always be this stuff

Pat
better luck next year I just bolder made it

Dear Pat,

It's been a real pleasure knowing you

& you've sure done a great job in S.C. Keep up the good work always!

God bless you,

Ed Manning

Pat, here we Well, here we are sophomores
and still friends!

G.S. Remember madalene!

Pat, your one of the nicest boys
I've ever known - be good next year - have fun at South
Sweet sixteen, marcia

Pat, I think you're a real great up and coming
guy. Be good or have fun.
Love ya.

Dear Pat,

Remember the runs
to catch the Bus?
I do. Be good? Congis
on being a rock!
